Customer Testimonials

“the best software executives I have ever worked with. They understand retail and what it takes to deliver a successful software implementation project as well as anyone. Most importantly, they take a true partnership approach and always deliver on their promises. You won't find more intelligent, hardworking or honest people in this business.”

“The Software is a HIT! I spent the day at a workshop for General Managers & Assistant General Managers on Friday and had the opportunity to ask their thoughts during breaks & at lunch - the comments (some are below) were overwhelmingly positive. My team has also received e-mails from GMs echoing the same theme.”

“exemplifies accountability, flexibility and high expectations that are coupled with their down to earth approach. They have proven their ability to get things done which is reflected in the management of their organization. Their teams have continually and consistently found resolutions and ways to move projects and relationships forward. Their no-nonsense approach has afforded them a high level of respect from colleagues, peers and most importantly customers.”
